Il Filo Verde: a century-old family tradition

From the Verona market in the early 1900s to the present day, driven by passion and integrity: four generations carrying forward a unique thread of values.

Today, Il Filo Verde blends artisanal expertise with a modern vision, selecting premium fruit and vegetables for those who value authentic quality.

IV GAMMA

The Il Filo Verde "IV Gamma" (Fresh-Cut) line was created to meet the demands of a market increasingly focused on quality, service, and time optimization. We offer fruit and vegetable products that are washed, cut, and ready to use, while preserving their full freshness, flavor, and nutritional value.

Every stage of the process, from the selection of raw materials to processing, is managed with the highest standards of food safety and traceability. This ensures a reliable, consistent, and premium product that is strictly Made in Italy.

Our Salads

Who They Are For

Il Filo Verde's fresh-cut salads are designed for those who love healthy eating and authentic flavors.

They are specifically dedicated to the Ho.Re.Ca. sector, large-scale catering, and culinary professionals looking for a partner capable of simplifying daily operations without compromising on quality.

New flavor horizons

A variety that speaks of nature

Our Range of Ready-to-Use Salads Our range of ready-to-use salads includes numerous types of mixes and varieties, designed to satisfy diverse palates and offer ever-evolving flavor experiences.

The selection features classic favorites such as mixed salad, sugarloaf, escarole hearts, and many other flavorful combinations that bring together green leaves, crunch, and color.

The Fresh-Cut (IV Gamma) line adheres to strict quality and traceability criteria from harvest to distribution, utilizing careful processing methods that enhance the product without the use of preservatives.
